Dear Free Agency,

This is a letter to express my interest in the Front-End Engineer position at Free Agency. My interest was peaked when seeing how you guys are transforming the way tech workers approach the industry. I believe my passion for web development will allow me to be a great asset to your team.

I am seeking a role that will be both challenging and rewarding. My drive and pursuit allows me to continue to develop my skills. In an ever-changing technological landscape, this allows me to be a step ahead of the game and successful adapting to new roadblocks to solve.

The requirements you have posted closely match my skills and background. I want to make a note of a few that will help me succeed in this position:

- Strong working knowledge of React, Vue, Javascript, and APIs
- Excellent team collaboration skills built from 2 years of successful projects
- High attention to details
- Quick and passionate problem solver

Please contact me at any time via call or email. Thank you sincerely for both your time and consideration for this role. I look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you,
Matt Closson
